Phaedo Practice Questions [-84b-105e]

SECTION A

Instructions for Section A

Answer all four questions.

Question 1
Outline the argument and consequence of Simmias’s notion that the soul might be an attunement.

_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________

3 marks

Question 2
Explain and evaluate how the theory of recollection is thought to bear on the plausibility of the attunement theory of soul.

_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________

4 marks

SECTION A - continued
Question 3
Explain two of the objections that Socrates raises (other than the theory of recollection) to the attunement theory of the soul. Evaluate at least one of these.

_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________

4 marks

Question 4
Socrates claims that it is ‘in the presence of [soul], in a body, that [a] body will be alive’. Outline and evaluate both, his argument in support of this claim, and its supposed conclusion.

_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________

4 marks

Total 15 marks